Mr. President, the bill before us will save $15.3 billion in budget authority and $0.6 billion in outlays from the current fiscal year through the rescissions in the bill. As chairman of the Senate Budget Committee, I ask unanimous consent that a table displaying the relationship of the bill to the Senate Appropriations Committee's budget allocation be placed in the RECORD at this point.

There being no objection, the table was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Mr. HATFIELD. Mr. President, what is the parliamentary situation?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Illinois has another 11 minutes 33 seconds left.

Mr. HATFIELD. I have 30 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That is correct.

Mr. HATFIELD. The proponents?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. They have 11 minutes 32 seconds available.

MORNING BUSINESS

Mr. HATFIELD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that there now be a period for the transaction of routine morning business with Senators permitted to speak for up to 5 minutes each.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

TRIBUTE TO THE LATE DOLLYE HANNA

Mr. THURMOND. Mr. President, each day, members of this body rise to pay tribute to men and women who have had an impact on our Nation in one manner or another. On any given day the RECORD will contain passages praising elected officials, captains of industry, and others who have accumulated a list of accomplishments that are usually nothing less than impressive and oftentimes enviable. Today, I want to recognize a woman who does not possess such a vita, but is nevertheless worthy of recognition, the late Mrs. Dollye Hanna, who recently passed away at the age of 98.

Though Mrs. Hanna, or "Momma Doll" as she was affectionately known by her family and friends, was not involved in either public service or the private sector, she did dedicate her life to the noblest endeavor there is, her family. In her almost century on this earth, she was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and great-great grandmother. She set an example for kindness and caring, and as the matriarch of the family, she left her strong mark and influence on four generations of Hannas.

During a service held in her memory last month, Mrs. Hanna was remembered as a woman who was: a lady; a mother; a friend; someone who spanned time; and as a child of The Father. I cannot think of a more flattering or appropriate manner in which to remember this special woman who devoted herself to caring for her husband, children, and extended family. She is someone who will certainly be missed by all those who knew her, and my sympathies go out to all those who knew and cared for this remarkable lady, especially her grandchildren: E.G. Meybohm; Robert L. Meybohm; Dollye W. Ward; Mildred W. Ghetti; and Hanna W. Fowler.

MESSAGES FROM THE PRESIDENT

Messages from the President of the United States were communicated to the Senate by Mr. Thomas, one of his secretaries.

EXECUTIVE MESSAGES REFERRED

As in executive session the Presiding Officer laid before the Senate messages from the President of the United States submitting sundry nominations which were referred to the appropriate committees.

(The nominations received today are printed at the end of the Senate proceedings.)

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

At 1:55 p.m., a message from the House of Representatives, delivered by Mr. Hays, one of its reading clerks, announced that the House has passed the following bill, in which it requests the concurrence of the Senate:

H.R. 2020. An act making appropriations for the Treasury Department, the United States Postal Service, the Executive Office of the President, and certain Independent Agencies, for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1996, and for other purposes.

MEASURES REFERRED

The following bill was read the first and second times by unanimous consent and referred as indicated:
